“ I met Les and his wife on Thanksgiving day 2002. My family is very dysfunctional and I had somehow gotten myself uninvited for Thanksgiving that year. These people opened their home and invited me to celebrate the holiday with their family. I will never forget that kind gesture. People like them and the kindness they showed towards me have made me into the person I am today. I'm sorry for your loss. Les was an angel on Earth and now he is one in heaven!

“ My Uncle Les was a wonderful man. He loved and took care of his family. He was always working and doing things around the house even when he got off from work. I have a lot of good memories of him.. He will be missed.. Thank you Lord for taking care of him until we all meet again in heaven.. Love and prayers to all..
