

Lila Mae Vanderhoof-Hardy

January 26, 1938 - October 27, 2019

Lila Mae Vanderhoof-Hardy (Smith) died peacefully at home on October 27, 2019 in Orlando, Florida at the age of 81.

Lila was born on January 26, 1938 in Acup, West Virginia to Clyde and Myrtle Smith. Lila is survived by her husband Henry "Hank" Hardy; daughter Kim (Ron) Hunsinger; step daughter Katie Kauffman; two granddaughters, Shannon (Isaiah) Likens and Heather Hunsinger; and three great grandchildren, Ashton, Riley and Emily. She is preceded in death by her father Clyde Smith and mother Myrtle Thomas of West Virginia.

Lila valued three things most in life which are Faith, Family and Love. She was a faithful member of Rosemont Baptist Church for a number of years until she moved to Orlando and became a member of the Orlando Lutheran Towers. Lila always had an extra place at the dinner table for guests and made everyone feel welcomed like family. She was a hair stylist for over 30 years. Lila enjoyed playing cards with her husband and simply spending time with family.

“ Our thoughts, love, hugs and prayers are with you all during this difficult time,
We always will treasure the time we got to spend with Sissy when we visited Florida. Her and Walter made you feel right at home.
Love Clarence and Laurie Smith and Charlie too

“ I met Lila after my sister started working Iveys at Winter Park Mall. Lila was a sweet caring lady. She was a lot of fun to be around. She was a great friend to my sister and to me. Her daughter , Kim and I hung out together. We were very close. I'm saddened by her passing. I'll never forget her! I'm sure she and Nan are having a great time together in heaven
