

Lillian Allen

November 19, 1923 - March 24, 2016

Today, the angels are rejoicing. Our beloved Lillian Allen gracefully answered heaven's call on March 24, 2016.

Lillian Kelley was born November 19, 1923, and married Spencer Allen February 22, 1952. Today, her husband, Spencer, three children, nine grandchildren and six great-grandchildren gather to remember and celebrate the gift of her love.

There is much that we remember: camping trips, dogs that required constant care, home cooked meals, oysters in the Thanksgiving stuffing, and pithy quips, one of her favorite being, "Talk is cheap, but it takes money to buy rum!" She was kind, compassionate and graciously welcoming to all who entered her home.

In her final peaceful moments, she was surrounded by her family and the size of the clan was not lost on her husband who remarked, "All this family and it started with just the two of us!"

Lillian is survived by her husband, Spencer, daughters, Sandra and Suzanne, son, Stanley, son-in law, Rick Miller, and daughter-in-law, Brenda Allen, grandchildren, Greg, Kristen, Kelly, Eric, Justin, Rebecca, Janine, Jennifer and Michelle, and great-grandchildren, Ashley, Ryan, Ashton, Grace, Ethan, and Eric Jr.

“ I've never loved anyone more, and don't think I ever will.

I wrote her a poem:

*Here lies a rich woman
She hath not silver or gold
She not fame or fortune
But she doth have a soul
Which God did save, when He gave
His only son for the toll
For this woman's name is written
Where all is forgiven
In the book of life
With the blood of Christ
For God did save her soul
Amen*
