“I was recently informed by my brother Ray that Linda had passes away. We met at her house about 18 ago and had a long visit, recalling childhood memories of her during our summers of youth. We kept in touch on social media and also through mail. Linda was as beautiful inside and out as she was during our summer vacation on 578 Mae West Road. I was shocked and saddened of her recent passing. Her memory will always be with me.
