

Linda A. Menihan

September 22, 1952 - July 29, 2016

Linda Menihan, 63 of Winter Park, Florida passed away peacefully at home on July 29, 2016. Linda was born in New York, New York on September 22, 1952. Linda was a medical assistant on Long Island but her greatest joy was being a wife, mother and grandmother.

She is preceded in death by her parents, William and Marilyn Bauer. She is survived by her devoted husband, James Menihan where they just celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary. She is also survived by her sister Susan (Turcotte), brothers William (Bauer) and Robert (Bauer), her sons Matthew Menihan, Bryan Menihan (Joanie/Rachel), and daughter Marisa Mendoza (Jose), and her grandchildren Jordan, Ethan, Evan, Jacob, Jessica and Ava.

May her memory be a blessing.

A visitation and reception will be held on Sunday, July 31, 2016 from 4:00-6:00 pm with a prayer service beginning at 5:30pm.

“ More than 45 years ago Linda and Jim lived across the street from us. We needed someone to help us take care of our toddler son while we spent as much time as we could at the hospital bed of our precious 6 year old daughter. Jim and Linda were there for us. That was the beginning of our friendship. Jack also too pride in being selected as Bryan's godfather. We have shared much over the years and kept in touch even though we now live in Colorado. May you be comforted by our Heavenly Father. Your loss cannot be measured buy we do know it is great. We wish we could give you some hugs. You know you are in our prayers.
