“ Margie brown - Friend posted a condolence Jerry...I am so sorry for your loss. I heard about Linda from my parents when our son Wyatt was in the hospital about 8 months ago and they kept me up to date along the way. I was very sad to hear that she had passed. I know it was a very tough 8 months and I just can't imagine all that you and especially Linda went through. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Margie (Coryn) Brown & family

“ Brenda - cousins posted a condolence Dear, Shanta, Bobby, Jer Jer, Susie, Matty and Joey. The memories I remember of Linda as we were growing up, are precious. I only wish, that she lived and loved longer, here on earth Even though, I wasn't around much, she still is my cousin, the three girls. It's been a long hard time for me, and I am unable at this time to come to Linda's funeral. Know, that my heart and prayers, are forever with each of you. I honestly thought, she was going to make it. Looking at her beautiful picture, that's the Linda Lee, I alway's want to remember. She is young again, no illness, and with our family above and our Lord Jesus Christ, our savior, who forgave us our sins and will forever comfort each of you through this time. God Bless you all, as Linda is laid to rest. With my love and condolences, Brenda, and Fred.

“ Joyce Evans Alsop - Friend posted a condolence Linda will be missed greatly. A friend for many years, first working together for a temp agency and later, taking ballet along with my step-children May Lee and Tammy Alsop at Fame Dance. I know she is at peace and living in the light. My condolence to Jerry, Shanta and the rest of her family. Joyce, Sam, May Lee and Tammy Alsop. The Traveler By James Dillet Freeman She has put on invisibility. Dear Lord, I cannot seeâ€” But this I know, although the road ascends And passes from my sight, That there will be no night; That You will take her gently by the hand And lead her on Along the road of life that never ends, And she will find it is not death but dawn. I do not doubt that You are there as here, And You will hold her dear. Our life did not begin with birth, It is not of the earth; And this that we call death, it is no more Than the opening and closing of a doorâ€” And in Your house how many rooms must be Beyond this one where we rest momentarily. Dear Lord, I thank You for the faith that frees, The love that knows it cannot lose its own; The love that, looking through the shadows, sees That You and she and I are ever one!
