“ My sweet cousin and I got to share a lot of memories over the past few months. Childhood ones mostly. How we sold lilacs (our favorite flower} from our Grandma Wagners garden at Mothers Day. We loved our days at Hen Island as kids playing carefree.. She would tell me all about her nieces and nephews who she loved so much. She also told me how wonderful and supportive and helpful all of her family has been to her. She loved you guys soooo much. I will miss you Lin

“ dear linda love... to say we are all devastated would be an understatement. you have left us with a huge hole in our hearts and in our lives.

instead of focusing on what we have lost here is to celebrating you! a daughter, sister, aunt and friend who had the most infectious laugh, the biggest heart and a woman who truly loved her family. you dedicated yourself to them and you loved each of them unconditionally. you also loved your friends unconditionally and i was so fortunate to be one of your friends.

you were so proud of your sisters and your brothers. you beamed, beamed, hope you hear me... beamed with pride over your nieces & nephews. each one of them meant so much to you and you only wanted the best for them. you had no agenda and expected nothing in return.

as i sit here talking to you, i want you to know what i will always miss and remember most...

your keen wit

your unselfishness

your priceless friendship

your beautiful face

your infectious laugh

your hysterical sarcasm

your crazy sense of humor

having a kahlua & cream (our favorite) sitting on the beach in our beach chairs laughing so hard we were crying. being the crazy aunts we were we even had little beach chairs for our nieces. all the other kids had to be envious right?

this is how i leave you my dear friend...

i imagine you sitting up in heaven where you so deserve to be, the sun is shining, the waves are rolling in, you are in your beach chair with a kahlua and cream, your family is surrounding you and you are laughing your wonderful laugh. most important, you are at peace.

RIP my dear friend. i miss you. i love you.
