

Lisa Dickson Romano

February 18, 1963 - July 8, 2023

Lisa (Dickson) Romano, 60, passed away peacefully on July 8, 2023, with her family lovingly by her side.

Born on February 18, 1963, in Rochester, New York, she was the daughter of Charles and Florence Dickson. She grew up in Rochester with her brother, Joseph. She graduated from Eastridge Senior High School in 1981, and on August 14, 1982, she married Sam Romano. They were blessed with three boys: Sam, Steven, and Christopher. Lisa treasured every moment with Sam and the boys; those memories were proudly displayed in photos throughout their home. She loved her family dearly, and they were the light of her life.

Lisa was passionate about making her house a home, meeting new friends, listening to and singing music, going to concerts, cooking for and hosting family gatherings, and dancing, all of which she did throughout her life. She cherished time spent with her girlfriends and was a friend to everyone she met. Lisa was always authentic and selfless in her pursuit of helping others.

She was a beautiful person inside and out; few met Lisa without feeling the spirit she emitted. She will be greatly missed until we are reunited with her.

Lisa is survived by her husband, Sam, of 41 years; three sons, Sam (Alex), Steven, and Christopher; brother Joseph (Gladys); mother, Florence (Don); eleven nieces and nephews; and many more extended family members and dear friends. She was preceded in death by her father in 1996.

In lieu of flowers, she requested that donations be made in her name to Saint Jude's Children's Hospital or your favorite charity.

“ From the moment I met Lisa, I knew she was meant to be with my cousin, Sammy. They were like two lovebirds destined to be together. I will always remember Lisa's warm and loving smile and the look in her eyes when she was with Sammy. And the look in his eyes for his Lisa. Gone way too soon. It's wasn't supposed to be this way with their love story. But God is merciful.

May all the beautiful memories Lisa left behind bring some comfort and solace to her beloved Sammy and to each of her beloved family members. My hope for each of you is to still find Lisa in your loving memories, in the whisper of the wind, with a butterfly appearing, or a rainbow in the sky, and with her favorite songs, and the sound of her sweet laughter forever imprinted on your minds ... she WILL be there for you.

An angel in heaven now dancing with the angels. May God bless Lisa's soul and grant her everlasting peace. †

“ I'd like to share the story of how Lisa and I met 14 years ago. I had just started dating my ex; one night we went to a popular bar in the Tampa area to hear a local band play. He was a frequent flyer at that bar, and knew most everyone there. I, on the other hand, didn't know anyone inside the bar except for him. Most of the crowd seemed to know one another, with many large tables of people chatting. I took a seat by myself at the end of one table while he made the rounds talking to people. After sitting alone for about 15 minutes, I started to feel out of place, like a fish out of water. Suddenly, this beautifully radiant woman came up to me. She stuck her hand out to shake mine and with a genuine smile said "Hi, I'm Lisa. Would you like to come sit with us?" I joined Lisa and her other girlfriends at the table and that is how our friendship began.

Lisa will never know how much her kindness that evening meant to me. That's the authentic person she was; Lisa always lifted up other women.

Although you will certainly be missed, there is comfort in knowing you're up in Heaven, singing and dancing to Godsmack.

With love, Kimberly
