

Lizmarie Vialpando

February 22, 1972 - July 18, 2018

Lizmarie Calderon-Vialpando was born on February 22, 1972 in Jersey City, New Jersey to Manuel Calderon and Candida Esther Huckleberry. She was a beloved sister to Manuel (Juni), Jubetsy, Denise, William (Billy) and Kenneth (Kenny), Godmother to her eldest niece Delissa, and wife to Paul Vialpando. The greatest joy of her life was her only daughter Kayla. Lizmarie (Lisa) loved her very large and extended family unconditionally and had a special bond with her nephews and nieces. Above all, Lisa loved her Savior Jesus Christ with whom she had a special relationship. She loved to worship the Lord and her devotional time with Him was a priority in her life.

Lisa worked as a workmens compensation adjuster for many years and then became a legal assistant. She formed lifetime friendships during her professional career and considered those colleagues as family. However, her role as Mother and Wife was her primary focus. Lisa's relationship with Pastor Paul and her church family meant the world to her. She was grateful for all of the wonderful support she received from them.

We have been blessed to have shared Lisa's Life. We cherish her memory in our hearts and look forward to that day when we will all be together again.

On behalf of Lisa's daughter, parents and siblings, we want to express how deeply grateful we are for the beautiful angels of Titi Dinah and Tio Frank for taking care of Lisa during her illness. We love you with all of our hearts.
