“Lois was a sweet lady..with a tender caring heart. ...she sat beside me every sunday in Sunday School class at Central Baptist Church in Sanford Fl. She would make her way into the room using her walker, she always sat beside me...we had time to talk most Sundays before class started. She always carried her Bible which she opened to the bible verses we were studying....she would bring family pictures to show me- and the beautiful cakes she made....said she was a school bus driver in her younger days. I missed by buddy when she felt that she had to be with her daughter in the Special Ed class at Church..I would pass by to say hello and she always had a big smile for me. I will always remember Lois..she was a special friend to me.
