“Forty-six years ago Lois and I were preparing for a new adventure - 2 years teaching in Japan. It was without a doubt one of the best decisions we ever made. We met so many wonderful people including our future life partners, Cooper and Charlie! As to Japan, we fell in love with the people, the food, the arts, the entire culture. We both said many times back then that we would always cherish these years and we certainly did. As many others have said, Lois fought her various health problems so bravely. May she be an inspiration to all of us. It is a small comfort to know she is now at peace but Charlie and I will miss her so. Our love to Cooper and Christy.

“ It is so sad to hear that Lois has passed away. I really enjoyed knowing her, especially when she lived in Denver, Colorado. She was a lovely and fun person. She loved cats and travel to tropical destinations. I used to cat sit for her kitties. I will always remember Nigel. What a funny kitty! I am so sorry Christy and Cooper, for your loss. With deepest sympathy and blessings, your friend, Shirley.

P.S. A memory of Lois and I going to Le Central for lunch on a day it was pouring rain. We were sitting on the enclosed patio section, when suddenly we were getting soaked, as the roof started leaking. Of course they had to move us to an inside table. That restaurant closed recently, to our dismay. It had such lovely French food and atmosphere. I haven't found a replacement yet.

“ Lois was one of the kindest and most thoughtful people I ever met. She always had a good memory to share and looked for the best in everyone she knew. She accepted life's challenges and kept a positive outlook. My life was blessed because I had her for a dear friend for so many years. She will never be forgotten. Sending prayers and comfort to Cooper, Christy, and her family. Nancy

“ Estimada familia Madera lamento mucho la pérdida de su ser querido pero quisiera compartir con ustedes unas consoladoras palabras que se encuentran en (Apocalipsis 21:3,4) allí nuestro padre celestial nos promete eliminar todo aquello que nos haga sufrir; y que también cada una de estas cosas serán del pasado.y podemos confiar en esta y otras promesas porque la misma Biblia dice en (Tito1:2) que Dios no puede mentir. Espero que estas palabras les sirvan de aliento.

“ I taught at Palmetto with Lois. We shared that she lived in and loved my home state of Colorado. I feel lucky to have spent time with such a classy woman. Her time on earth was spent accepting and loving everyone she met. It will be difficult to fill the void her passing leaves. I will be keeping your family in my prayers as you face that task.
