

Lorenzo Kurt Singh

November 15, 1991 - January 9, 2026

A devoted son, a proud father, a dedicated sailor, and a man whose quiet strength touched everyone who knew him. Born on 15th November 1991, Kurt moved through life with a calm presence and a generous heart.

As an only child, the bond he shared with his mother, Malini Singh, was the foundation of his world. He often spoke of her with deep affection, describing how her wisdom, her energy, and her unwavering love shaped him. She molded him into a man of resilience, kindness, and character, and he carried her influence with him every day.

The love Kurt received was love he gave back freely. His greatest joy was his son, Lyric. He wanted Lyric to grow up knowing he was loved, supported and guided — knowing that his father's love would always surround him.

Kurt also shared a close and special friendship with his friends Liza, Jayshawn, Trye and others.

He was deeply loved by his Aunt Karen, with whom he shared a special bond that can never be replaced. He was also adored by Aunts Donna, Janice, Petal, Ruby, and his great-aunt Yvonne. His many cousins - Especially Bridgette who shared a close bond and whenever they were together, they were inseparable, Ashley was also loved by Kurt and they shared many moments of laughter, fun and good times. Tiffany, Nathan, Ronald, Richard, Joel, Jason, Jermain, Neil, Paul, Nicola, Mark, Dacia, Rebecca, and Michael — each had their own connection with him, and each carried a place in his heart.

His journey took him from Guyana to the United States, and from civilian life to the honor of serving in the United States Navy. Whether he was cooking at sea, supporting the Presidential Food Service, or earning the distinguished title of Senior Sailor of the Year, Kurt carried himself with humility and quiet excellence. His selection as a Chief Petty Officer reflected not only his skill, but the integrity and dedication that defined him.

Yet beyond the uniform, Kurt was simply a good man. He loved exercising, volunteering, working on cars, and spending time with friends. He had a warm presence, a generous spirit, and a way of making people feel seen, valued, and understood.

Kurt was married to Ayrian Singh, the mother of his beloved Lyric, whom they both love deeply. His stepfather, Shaffie Jaffar, also played a significant role in Kurt's life and held a cherished place in his heart.

Today, as we say goodbye, we also celebrate the love that shaped him — the love he received from his mother, and the love he gave to Lyric, his cousins, his family, and all those who were part of his life. These are the Legacies he leaves behind, and they will continue to live on in every person he touched. May his memory be a blessing, and may Lyric grow up knowing that his father was a man of honor, heart, and deep, enduring love.

Lorenzo, we're going to miss you more than words can ever say. We saw the man you became, and we were all proud of you. We'll carry your spirit with us, always. Rest in Peace our beloved.

“ This feels like a dream to me still. For 34 yrs I carried you, nourish you, love you, cared, and comfort you. I protected you until the age of 18yrs. Then you became the son of the American people. You served with pride, and respect for a country we called home after moving from your birth country. You were the light in our home and in my ❤️. My son every breath, every smile, every, tear, every joy, EVERYTHING i did for 34yrs was for you. You never asked, but I did it, because you were MY SON ,the air I breathe, the reason i am alive, you were the reason my heart beat with joy. I looked forward to our Sunday conversation or video calls, to the texts we shared during our hectic work week. Our Christmas vacation spending together. Lorenzo you were my life, my everything. How am I suppose to move on in this world knowing I will never get to hold you, hear your laughter, your sweet voice ,see you smile again. How am I going to live in a world you are no longer a part of my sweet child. I pray for faith , courage and strength. I will carry you in it heart, your memory will live on and I will take care of my grandson. I love you my child. Until we meet again.

ME

“Wow Where do I start💔💔I'm a coworkers to Lorenzo's mother Loren. I worked for Lowes for several years side-by-side. In fact she was the one who trained me when I first started in 2005. Lorenzo, you were the light to your mother she worshiped the ground. He walked on. She would always tell me little stories about you growing up in Guyana. Then one day she came into work and was so excited because she was having a grandson, the sparks in her eyes and the tears of joy that she showed at that time because she knew she was going to be a grandmother. I met your son Lorenzo twice once when he was a baby baby and then approximately three. My heart goes out to your mother, Loren and her entire family during this horrific time. May you rest in peace and Loren I hope one day you'll find comfort knowing you had one amazing son. Not many of us can say that we had a son who served for our military, and stood by our military through these tough times. Loren, I am here for you if you need me may God bless you and your entire family Marcia and Mike English.💔🙏🇺🇸
