“ My Beautiful Mother, I should of stood up to say what an amazing Mother you were but I just couldn't prepare myself no matter how much I tried. You deserved to be bragged about from me. I sit here now without you here , it's unbearable!. I always go back to when I was little and how you made our lives so filled up with love . You were always kissing us and telling us how much you loved us . You made every Holiday perfect for your family . Even though times were rough , you made our Christmas Holidays unforgettable. You were so happy when you saw your loved ones in your life were happy. I love my memories of you and that's what kills me the most, Everything is a memory. Our days seem to be getting worse and I'm counting the days when I last talk to you. I won't hear (I Love You) 3 times a day anymore. How will life go on without you Mom. You were adored , admired and very inspiring , especially for the year you had. You definitely left a hole in our hearts. I wish I could kiss and hug you again , but I would never let you go. We love you so very much my Beautiful Mom. Lori

“ My dearest Aunt - my heart is broken, and I will miss our "coffee talks" and all our visits together, which were so many. You always made me smile and made me feel so loved. You were my inspiration in life; to be the coolest, most loving aunt I could be in my own family. It gives me comfort, to know that you now dwell in the beautiful place called heaven, free from pain and suffering, free to fly and be our guardian angel always. Rest in peace, my beautiful aunt.

“ I first met Loretta in 2001 when my family came to join Jaynes family for our first thanksgiving weekend and so the tradition began. Loretta was the most caring and fun person and always welcomed us with open loving arms. We spent years gathering at the Cunningham's home for annual thanksgivings and summer vacations. Loretta was a true inspiration and I feel I learned a lot about acceptance and love from her. She will be missed by so many.
