“ I am sad for the family. I enjoyed the many shows I saw with Ed and Lorraine. The odd thing is that my dear, sweet husband died on the same day five years ago.

This is not the Lorraine Warren from the paranormal field. There's been a mistake made this woman was born in 1935 and Lorraine and Ed Warren were both born in 1927.

“ Ed and Lorraine Warren were and still are my life inspirations. Reading their stories, and watching the wonderful movies that are based off of their true cases has taken me down a path that I feel I am meant to go. They have helped -so to speak- me finally figure out the kind of person that I want to be in life. I would love to help people the way that they have, even if there isnt much money involved, because what could be better than helping others in deep need? It would have been a dream come true if i could have crossed paths with Lorraine, or even Ed, but at least now they are finally together forever.

So, I guess, I would love to say Thank you Lorraine and Ed, because you have finally given me something I have had yet to get. A light in my life of night. I know that I will never forget you guys and what you have done. And all I can ask for is your guidance to help others they way you have. We all miss you.

“ I have always followed her and Ed's work. Such a remarkable lady. The 1st Lady of the Paranormal field. I'm a Psychic and she is the first person that ever made me feel somewhat "normal ", gifted not crazy. She will truly be missed. Sending prayers and love to the family. From Southern Georgia. Glad you are back in the arms of Ed.

“ I did not know Lorraine Warren, I was a big fan and follower of her and her husband Ed.

I wish I could have written to her and maybe possible have become a pen pal. I deeply admire all of the help she and her husband gave to so many people that needed it when no one else would listen and even give their problem a second thought.

I am so sorry for the family's lost and to their daughter Judith also.
