“ Virginia Gerding - Friend posted a condolence LouEtta was my friend ever sice she went into the nursing home, via telephone. Although I never met her in person, I still considered her my dear friend. I even called her "my mother in Isreal". I always thanked her for her prayers, they so encouraged me. We shared hymns and scriptures together. We both loved birds and I told her that hers was smarter than mine becasue it would talk. I, already miss her dearly, but I am looking forward to seeing her in glory!

“ Desiree Dennison - Great Neice posted a condolence Aunt Loretta inspired many that meet her, she always thought of others before herself, her motto and my grandmothers motto was Jesus first, others second and yourself last. She lived her life caring for others, and loved each and everyday. I think when the time came that she could not do that anymore, allot of herself was gone too. Until the great and awe inspiring day of the Resurrection we will miss her. Love Desiree & family

“ Robin Miller - great-niece posted a condolence My Aunt Louetta was one of the people who inspired most in my life. Her devotion to Jesus and the way she lived her life was amazing. Somehow sending condolences doesn't seem right. I am so happy that my dear Aunt Louetta is with her Jesus now. God Speed, Aunt Louetta. I love you.
