“ I found this picture of Mom and Aunt Louise on one of their many vacations together. Along with enjoying hearing about all the adventures they went on together with Dad and Uncle Sal, it was all our holiday gatherings and celebrations and our visits that I will always remember where we all laughed over good food and drink and enjoyed being one big family! Rest In Peace Aunt Louise - sending my love and hope you and Mom and Dad are looking down with love...Godspeed❤️

“ Grandma, no woman in the world would do what you have done for our family. You took on 4 kids, ran your own business and loved our Salvatore for 49 years! I will miss the food spreads you would have out for us when we would arrive to Florida with fresh out of the oven sourdough rolls from Publix’s, cold cut platters, sausages, cold antipasta and always offering a beer. I am truly blessed you were able to travel to NJ one last time to share my wedding day and that Dominic was able to meet you and hold your hand. You were a great loving and caring grandmother and I hope Joey and I made it all worth it. May you Rest In Peace and wait patiently for your Salvatore!

“ My sincere and loving condolences to this wonderful family. Louise and Sal always made me feel like part of the family. I spent many a holiday with them when my own family moved away. Fond memories of cruising with Angie and family, visiting them in Florida, at Angie’s when they would come and visit, a Wildwood adventure, and always eating and lots of laughter! Louise and I shared stories of our sisters who had much in common. I’ll miss her kindness. Rest In Peace sweet lady. ♡♡

“ Grandma loved a good beer and chocolate. A great Italian restaurant with “to die for” garlic knots. A great ride in the car singing along to Carly Simon or Barbra! An awesome summer filled with adventures! We will miss you! 💜💜💜

“ Mom loved to dance with our Dad. She loved Zaxaphone Music especially Boots Randolph. She loved the Four Seasons and of course Frank Sinatra and Nancy Wilson. They loved to travel and enjoyed their vacations and Wildwood Crest. Mom loved watching the history channel and I always told her to go back to school and study World History especially WWII. Most of all she loved all of us especially her Grandchildren ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ We all will greatly miss her, Rest In Peace Mom
