“ Dearest Bill & Willy:

We are extremely saddened by the death of our dear cousin, Lourdes. She was a fighter and up to the last minute she fought for her life. She knew she had a lot to live for, her beloved husband and son. We are sure that her last thoughts were for you both. I will always remember her when she was a little girl, always smiling, loving and enthusiastic. She kept these qualities and many more till the end. Lourdes was a "woman with a purpose in life", this is, to make others happy in her presence. We are sorry we are far away, but you both know that even though we will not be physically present, but we will be there in spirit, prayers and love of family.

Lourdes will be missed and at the same time she will be remembered by her smile and sunny disposition in life. A fighter till the end. She is free now with no pain in the presence of the Lord together with her departed father and family.

Bill and Willy keep the faith and rest assured that Lourdes loved you more than anything else in the world. You were "her boys" as she once told me. We will keep our unforgettable memories of her till we meet again.

Our love and prayers are with you today and always,

Marucha, Rudy & Ana

Dear Bill and William,

I have not seen Lourdes since she left Computron, but I worked with her many years and was very saddened to hear of her passing. I remember her as a warm and compassionate woman who always had a smile and was quick to laugh - she was a pleasure to work with. I also recall that her family was her heart and the center of her life. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of terrible loss.

Lourdes was "mi amiguita de Marianao", my childhood friend from Cuba. I left Cuba in 1962 and had no communications w/Lourdes until October 1999. Since then we made up for lost time and saw each other, Bill and Willy, in trips to Miami, Naples, RV camp sites around So.Fla, and I was so lucky to be their tour guide in Key West years ago. I shall always cherish those wonderful memories. My sympathy and prayers go to her beloved family, especially to Bill and Willy. God Bless You all. Sincerely, Miriam Armenguer, Magaly & Xiomara
