“ Grandma Lucy, it has been 5 long years and I think about you every single day. Before bed at night I always think of the amazing adventures we shared. I miss singing our songs together in the car and going to Denny's to get breakfast. I think back to the times I would come and visit you at your condo. You were my favorite person to talk to, to call when I needed comfort, to hug on a bad day. You would think your passing would get easier with time but it doesn't. Only if I could get one more day back with you. One more time watching the dolphins, laying by the pool or getting ice cream together. I treasure each moment I shared with you. Thank you for being the worlds most fabulous grandmother. I love you.
