To my most loved friend and brother. I sure miss you and I am so sorry to not have you here any more with us. You will always live in my heart, mind, and spirit. You were such a genuine person that made me feel so loved every time I saw you, even when you were sick and going through difficult times. I learned so much with you that words would never describe. You were a hero and I am sure you are a beautiful angel now sitting by our Lord. You will always live in me forever and ever. No one can ever make me feel as special as you did. I praise God everyday for allowing me to be close to you in your most difficult moments of your life. I can not believe you are not here any more. I terribly miss you. Rest in peace my charm. Love your sister, Diana

“ *My best memory is our last time together at your house watching a movie with Will Smith. We talked, we laughed. and we shared our concerns about the family "gossip" lol. I thank God everyday for that day because Hector and I was able to parttake with you and Yolanda and we were able to show you both how much you mean to us. I am hurting and rejoicing at the same time because you are with our loving God. Hector and I promise to continue your legacy by sharing you contagious laughter and love... love you to pieces. “ I had the wonderful privilege of knowing this amazing man for 22 years whom I called my uncle. When I had my first child I made the decision to then make him the godfather to my child Antonio. I've never known such an amazing person that can come in to a room with such a wonderful glow. We might not been blood related but he was just as much as an uncle.. something I will miss is playing dominoes with you, even if he always knew what pieces I had in my hand. Lol You will be truly missed

“ Who would've known that the last time we spoke, just days before your passing and you said to me "so long brother" it would really have true meaning to it. I don't know if I'm punishing myself or just want to hear your distinctive voice but I find myself playing back your last voice message over and over. I'm thankful for the friendship we've had and that I will continue to have with your family. There's a bond there that can't be broken. I will miss you until we can laugh again my brother.
