

Magdi Nasri Shebbein

November 9, 1948 - September 21, 2015

Magdi Nasri Shebbein, 66, of Apopka, Florida, passed away peacefully in his sleep on Monday, September 21, 2015 at his home. Born in Cairo, Egypt to Raymonde and Nasri Shebbein, he was the youngest of two. He studied Agriculture at Cairo University and spoke Arabic, French, English and Spanish. He ran many successful greenhouse operations in Puerto Rico and Florida. In his spare time he enjoyed cooking, hosting dinner parties, reading, watching James Bond movies, painting, and spending time with his family.

Magdi is survived by his wife, Patricia (née McComas), of 16 years and his daughter, Mireille Christine Gennaro (Joe) and two grandchildren, Julian Nash and Amelie Marisa all of whom he adored with infinite love.

The family will receive friends at a Mass on Friday, October 2, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Francis of Assisi: 834 S Orange Blossom Trail, Apopka, FL 32703.

“ Magdi was a new guy from overseas when I meet him. He was always very kind to me. I had not been in contact with him for many years and was very pleased to see him at my Aunt Diane's 80th birthday party 2 years ago. He hadn't changed except getting older (who didn't!). May you rest in peace Magdi! Our thoughts and prayers go to the family.

“ You will always be in our hearts and your memory will live on forever. I'll miss you every day of the rest of my life, but I know you won't be that far away from us. Thank you for being the best. I love you, Dad.
