“ The last time I saw Ba was January 2020. I took a selfie with her and Nia. I am lucky to have had a special relationship with Ba bc she knew my parents since they were little kids! I’m BEYOND BLESSED to have spent many happy summers growing up with Raman Dada and Manju Ba. I was only 7 the first summer I stayed w them in Blytheville, but I remember how hard Ba worked, at the hotel, and at home. I have LOVED that MY children also met Ba. It’s a blessing. She has helped RAISE so many of us... children/nieces/nephews/grandchildren/Great-grandchildren....

There is no love greater I have received than the love from my dearest and sweetest Manjuba. The woman I aspire to be more like. I love you more than life Ba and you will always live on through your values and teachings for all the generations to come. You are now at peace with Srinathji 🌈🙏❤️💕🌸

“ Mum, I know you waited till a litter latter in life to bring me into this World and I know I have definitely kept you on your toes with all my antics. I will forever encapsulate your endless blessings and teachings about my spiritual life and mental life. You have always been the light in my life and I will pass on this light as you taught me to everyone that wants to see the truth in the light. The promises you requested of me shall not go unanswered. Your constant blessings to all those around you near and far have endlessly inspired them to smile and be joyous. We will continue to multiply those blessings and spread the love you gave to this family and all those around you known or unknown. No more worries mum !!! We are all going to be fine.

“ Masi / Mami, we will miss your smile and your blessings. We are very thankful that both Pramod and I have made so many memories with you and Masa from our childhood onwards to now. Knowing your love and wellbeing of any children today some children at St. Jude will benefit on your behalf. I can see a big smile now on your face.
