“ Carmen, I want to express my heartfelt condolences to you and your mother for the loss of your dad. I can only imagine how deep your love for him was and how profoundly he impacted your life. He was undoubtedly a remarkable man, embodying strength and integrity from a time that has largely passed us by.

The values and lessons he instilled in you will undoubtedly carry on through your boys and future generations, keeping his memory alive within your family. While it's natural to feel sadness, I encourage you to focus on the beautiful moments you shared with him. You were fortunate to have such a steadfast presence by your side, someone who protected you throughout your life.

I know you cared for him deeply and offered him love and support until the very end. Now, as he finds peace, remember that he would want nothing more than for you to find happiness and for your children to thrive.

Even though he is no longer physically with you, he will always be watching over you in spirit. Celebrate the cherished memories, knowing that his love will remain with you forever, and take comfort in the fact that you have a friend nearby who cares deeply for you. Wishing you strength and peace during this difficult time.
