“ Marcela was truly one of a kind! fun, full of life, and impossible to forget. Her loud, contagious laugh could light up any room, and if there was music playing, you already knew it ... she'd be singing and dancing like a queen!!

I will forever hold on to the memories we shared since little, the laughter, and all fun times and joy she brought into my life.

Rest in peace, my beautiful cousin. You will always be in my heart.

“ Marcela was like a sister to me. Growing up all together for the past 35 years. She was always brave, caring, and fun. We share many memories over the years, more than I can write. Our trips to the beach, our nights out having to fly back home on the highway before curfew. Visiting her in Florida the first time she moved down there. She was a loving daughter, sister, friend and mother throughout the ups and downs in life. She will always be remembered and truly missed. Until we meet again!

“ Mi querida prima. Quiero celebrar tu vida. Mi primer recuerdo de ti, fue cuando visitaste mi casa en la calle San Enrique en Chile, en uno de tus viajes. Era el tiempo que el Lelo vivía con la tía Rebe en la calle Victoria, y nunca olvidaré tu cara y lo que dijiste cuando viste a mi papá: “un monstruo” seguido de muchas risas. Así eras, transparente, siempre de cara a la vida, diciendo lo que piensas, llena de energía y alegría. Todos lloramos de la risa. Con los años nos visitamos en Nueva York y en Chile. Fuimos vecinas en 15 Norte y un par de años más tarde, vivíamos en Nueva York, eran los noventa. De ahí tengo la mayoría de tus recuerdos, cenas en mi casa en Main Street, o en la tuya en 47-27, veranos en la playa, y el mejor de todos los recuerdos, nuestras vacaciones en Hunter Lake... cuando nos reímos tanto porque el bote mal inflado del Philipp se estaba hundiendo mientras nosotros observábamos convenientemente desde nuestras canoas. Que bellos recuerdos. Más grandes, ya no te vi tanto, por la distancia, pero siempre mantuvimos contacto. Te quiero mucho querida prima. Estoy segura que en el cielo estarás bailando con tus tatas. Un abrazo.
