“Marcelina McMillan was a dear friend of my mother (who passed one year before Marcelina.) She would come downstairs to my mother’s apartment in the morning for coffee, and they would read the newspaper together and listen to the news and discuss current affairs. Marce would give me Spanish lessons when I visited. Then when I moved in to help my mother once she needed 24/7 care, Marce would visit often and keep us company. I loved her smile and miss her dearly. I hope she and my mother are together now. They will both be in my heart forever!”
