

Margaret Ellen "Peggy" McLatchey

October 1, 1923 - July 28, 2010

Margaret Ellen "Peggy" McLatchey, 86, a long time resident of Orlando, died July 28, 2010, with her family by her side. A woman of great faith, a loving wife, a devoted mother and a deeply loved grandparent, she will be dearly missed.

Born in 1923 in Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, the daughter of Irish immigrants, Margaret grew up the eighth of nine children in a predominantly Irish community outside of Boston. Married to Clifford J. McLatchey in 1945, they started their family in Norwood, Massachusetts, moved to St. Petersburg, Florida in 1960, to Southern California in 1962, and ultimately to Central Florida in 1971. Always quick with a smile and a sense of humor, she was a lover of sports and games, an accomplished softball pitcher in her early years, and she could always be found cheering on one of her children or grandchildren at a local sports event.

She is survived by her children, Clifford McLatchey, Jr. of Laguna Niguel, California, Ann Hurst and Ellen McLatchey of Orlando, John McLatchey (wife Marilyn) of Winter Park, Russell McLatchey (wife Angela) of Lake Mary, George McLatchey (wife Corrina) of Orlando, by her sister Ann Martin of Norwood Massachusetts, and by her eight grandchildren, Ryan, Josh, Zach, Mike, Geoff, Megan, Emily and Connor.

The family will be receiving friends from 6:00 - 8:00 PM, Friday, July 30 at the DeGusipe Funeral Home in Maitland. A Mass of Christian burial will be celebrated 10:00 AM, Saturday, July 31, at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic
