

Margaret Grace Snipes

May 10, 1945 - December 30, 2023

Margaret Grace Eaddy Snipes was born 5/10/45 in Bennettsville, SC. Her father was John Hugh Eaddy and mother was Martha Elizabeth Tillman Eaddy. As a child, she lived in many places in South Carolina. She studied at University of Virginia, Frances Marion University and graduated from the University of South Carolina, where she was academically recognized and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She married Ronnie Alvin Snipes in 1968 and gave birth to a daughter, Kelley Elizabeth Snipes. She taught math, English, and French and retired as a guidance counselor in Marlboro County, SC. Later she moved to Florida to be near her daughter, Kelley Teixeira, and her grandsons Joseph, Jacob, Justin, Jonas, and Jonathan Teixeira and son-in-law, Lawrence Teixeira. She was a devoutly religious woman. She was blessed with undying love for her husband, Ronnie Alvin Snipes, and his for her.

“ Dearest Kelley,
Sending lots of love and prayers from Bennettsville! I have many fond memories of your family-from your Grandmother Eaddy and your Aunt Margaret getting their hair fixed in my Mama’s beauty shop, to our friendship at First Methodist and then your Mom & I teaching in the Marlboro County School District. Boy, did they all love “Little Kelley”! Lifting your family and you in my prayers.
