“ It's been almost 7 years since I last saw my you. They say time heals all but i don't agree. I may have been able to better manage my emotions over the years now but I wouldn't say I've healed past it. I've come to terms with that the wound I acquired from losing you will never be fully healed but I can try my best to be the woman you always knew me to be. I will be the best version of myself in your memory and with that I can bring everyone a small piece of you that will always be with me. ”

“ I had worked with Maria from 1983 on in White Plains then Florida. We always sat near each other. She was a great woman and will be missed by many that worked at AT&T. She was different in her own way. George, sorry for your loss.
