“ Dear Yaya,
Just wanted to wish you a happy birthday, since you've been gone things have been a little crazy and I cant lie if you were here you probably would've told me half the shit I was doing was wrong. I can hear you now just talking to me. I miss you so much I remember you use to collect these mini glass shoes and im not sure why you loved them so much but I remember one year for your birthday we got you this beautiful glass shoe and it was cheetah print. You were so happy, you smiled so big. What I'd do to see that smile again. I hope you know you have never been forgotten not even for a second..And I know your watching my life unfold and I know you'd want better for me. Our guardian angel.

Dont think I forgot that your the women in purple who watches your family even up there in heaven

May your soul rest in paradise*

“ Today makes 2 years since we lost the matte arc of our family and although it was a devastating loss for us I know that heaven gained a precious angel. We miss you more and more and the days go by. I know you are watching over us and that you are in the presence of our Heavenly Father and for that I am grateful. Rip beautiful soul that we call mom.

“ Happy Mother's Day mom! We always miss you and feel your void but today it seems so magnified that you are not here with us physically on this holiday. Mom on a day like Mother's Day I am reminded of the amazing mother and grandmother you were and how you showed me an example of unconditional love. Thank you for your dedication, loyalty and love, it will remain one of my greatest examples for the rest of my life❤️ I will always try my best to love our family like you did.

“ We just celebrated mothers day for the first time with out you here and it wasn't the same and you were missed dearly. I know that your watching over Rich and that you are happy and at peace with what God is doing in his life! I pray that he would continue to have faith and keep the hope that one day he will see you again. I know your not here with us anymore but your spirit in our hearts is still very much alive. Gaby has so many great memories with you that she talks about all the time, and I promise to never let her forget what an amazing yaya she had! I love you mom and I never imagined life with out you here so I pray that God would continue to give us all the strength that we need to adjust and I pray that he would give me the strength and love you had for your family and that I would be able to some what carry on your legacy. Rest with the father. I know your in all of his glory and that gives me peace.
