“ Marysia was a very important figure among Polish society. She moved to Florida in late 80ties. I met her and her husband Raymond 22 years ago . She was a lady who always spoke what she thought. She liked to live in a present not in the past. In spite of her age she was very modern and eager to use everything what made her life easier.

Very elegant and taking good care of herself and her husband.

She was a very dedicated mother for her three sons and their wives and a good grandmother for her grandchildren.

She survived II World War in Poland and a very hard time when this country became communist. One day she went to school house and hung crosses on the class walls. In those days it was an act of bravery and she could end up in jail.

That's who she was: brave, smart and caring.

For me she was my Friend.

I will miss her always.
