

Marie T. Gallo

April 13, 1931 - September 8, 2016

Marie Gallo was born on April 13, 1931 and sadly passed away on September 8, 2016. She was born in Brooklyn, New York where she would eventually meet and fall in love with her husband of 43 years, John "Jay" Gallo. Marie's pride and joy was her family which includes 6 children, 11 grandchildren, and 7 great grandchildren. She devoted her career to being an expert seamstress with a specialty in elegant wedding dresses. When she wasn't spending time with her beloved family, she enjoyed her free time baking, cooking, and crocheting her famous goodies for loved ones. She was also very fond of traveling and particularly found joy in going on cruises. With a smile electric enough to light up New York City, Marie's legacy will live vicariously through each and every life she touched. Her journey may have ended too early for the family, but for her, she made it home just in time for her husband Jay's birthday, who predeceased her. Marie was also predeceased by her son, Michael Gallo and Daughter in Law, Sherri Gallo. She is survived by sons Stephen J. Gallo, Gregory P. Gallo (Hollie), Christopher J. Gallo (Merry Angela), daughter Andrea M. Gallo and son Jeffrey R. Gallo (Dana), grandchildren, Michael A. Hunter (Agnes), Charlene M. Spadoni (Kevin), John E. Gallo (Nichole), Christopher W. Gallo, Nicholas R. Gallo, Dustin P. Gallo, Lauren C. Smoley, Christina L. Smoley, Jason Rodean, Isabella M. Gallo, Theophilus J. Gallo, great grandchildren Tyler Hunter, Jaxson Hunter, Jada Spadoni, Kaiden Spadoni, Giovanni Gallo, Julian Gallo and Gemma Gallo. “ I had the pleasure of being Marie's neighbor at Sleepy Harbour a few years ago. I watched my granddaughter, Cora, at the time and she saw us outside playing one day and invited us in to visit with her. After that, we stopped in often - she always had cookies and treats for Cora and I enjoyed listening to her stories. She stopped us one day and when we went in, she gave Cora a beautiful blanket that she had crocheted for her! I moved away last year but we stopped in at Christmas to visit with her. Unfortunately, we didn't get another chance to visit this year. My condolences to her family - she was a sweetheart and I'm sure she will be missed by many.

“ I have been visiting Marie for a while now and we really got to know one another. She was a beautiful lady, laughed a lot, was very spiritual and LOVED her family. The best part was her mind was perfect. She was not confused at all.
I now pray for the family during this difficult time.

“ Marie was such a sweet lady and part of my family for years. She loved her children and grandchildren with all her heart. She was a wonderful grandmother to my nephews, Nick and Dustin, and a good friend to my mom. She was able to keep her sense of humor throughout all the health issues she suffered over the last 20+ years I knew her. She will be sorely missed. RIP, Marie. You made a difference.

Love,

“ Being Marie's caregiver, was a blessing that I will cherish, she was a happy exciting and loving friend, mother, grandmother and mother in law. We had many shopping events which I absolutely enjoyed, but it had to be a secret from "Greg." Marie taught me to give presents while I am alive, so I can see the smiles and happiness on their faces, and she has thought me many more simple recipes for life. Knowing God and praying was a bond that we shared together thru difficult times. Marie will never be forgotten and her beautiful smile and lovely white hair was unique in every way. Holly- Marie loved you and would always think of special ways to say thanks. Marie loved her family!!
