

Marilyn Clark Cornejo

October 17, 1956 - February 22, 2022

A little sunshine went out of our lives on Tuesday, February 22, 2022 the day the beloved and devoted wife of Manuel, loving sister, aunt and friend, Marilyn Clark Cornejo passed away.

Marilyn will be remembered by all who knew her as a bubbly upbeat person who always had a kind word to say and a helping hand to lend.

She will be missed by all.

A Celebration of Life is planned in the coming weeks. Please return at a later time for service update.

The family of Marilyn Clark Cornejo invites you to leave a message of condolence on the Tribute Wall created in her loving memory.

Dear sister,

Anyone reading this and I am sure the person proofreading it for posting may think I have lost my mind .But I know what I saw and felt and I'm sure it was you.

On 02/21/26 I looked out my front window checking the weather as we were due for a very severe snowstorm the next day on 02/22/26. I could not believe how sunny the day was and how blue the sky was with lots of big fluffy white clouds .I thought what a strange sky for a severe winter storm coming in. Maybe it's the calm before the storm ?

Then my thoughts drifted to you, our family

You have been gone 4 years and your Smile and laughter are still unforgettable.

I watched the sun as it kept rising in the sky higher and higher and then it became brighter and brighter. It was uncomfortably hot too. The sun seemed to find me through the window no matter where I moved to. it's brightness was blinding and it was so hard to look at. I Believe it was around this time of day 3pm ,4 years ago that you fell to your kitchen floor .

I watched As the sun moved behind the fluffy white clouds turning them a very dark ash gray and then they started changing in shape too.

Did I really see one that looked like a girl with long hair and wings floating upwards ?

Then the Blue background sky changed to a hundred different shades of lavender and purple . I tried many times to take pictures , but that bright blinding sun peeking through the dark clouds washed out all the photos.

I watched in awe , It was spectacular and breathtaking. it was and I know... you.

I thought how amazing our bond has always been and how you find some way to reach out to me on the anniversary of your death.

Then at 4pm it was all gone and back to a sunny day with a blue sky and fluffy white clouds.

At this same time 4 pm I received a text telling me that the flowers I sent for your anniversary memory have been delivered earlier in the day . The flowers had been placed outside the front door of your home. The delivery was now being taken into your home to be placed beside your ashes .

I was also told that the flowers were beautiful . They were many shades of purple and lavender and they were arranged in purple vase

Yep, ...just as I ordered.

“ Love you sister to the gates of Heaven and back “

Rest In Peace Maggie...Love Dotti

Dearest Sister,

I was surrounded by Happy people again this Christmas. It was still a “Blue” one without you. I am missing you so very much

I know you are looking down at me, at times I can feel it . if I listen closely to the Wintery wind I can hear your laughter and if I look up into my darkest nights I can see your smiling eyes in the twinkling stars above.

Peace to both our Big Sister and Niece on their first Heavenly Christmas with you, Along with peace and Christmas hugs to you ...”heavens most beautiful Angel”

Love you to the gates of Heaven and back ...Dotti

“ Dearest baby sister,
Missing you and your laughter so very much on your 3rd Heavenly anniversary and every day.
This past year I did not find any pennies from heaven from you. At first I thought maybe you just ran out of pennies and then I had a terrible thought that maybe you were starting to forget about me. I never saw any beautiful rainbows in the sky either this past year. At first I thought maybe you just ran out of rainbow paint and then I had a terrible thought that maybe you were starting to forget about me.
I played your Earthly passing numbers today and they “Won!!!”. At first I thought I was seeing things and then I thought how terrible silly of me to think you would ever start to forget about me , as I would never forget about you.
“Rest In Peace in Gods Heavenly Light “
Oh, and Thanks Sis .
I love you to the gates of Heaven and back ,

“ Went to honor my little sister this evening. I still can't image my life without her. When I was feeling depressed and lonely, she knew how to make me smile and forget all the unhappy things. She was an angel here on earth. I love you to infinity and beyond. As I was leaving the funeral parlor, a cardinal was above us on a wire singing his little heart out. I know it was her sending me a message and as soon as I said I love you Marilyn, out loud, he flew away as if he knew his job was done.

“ Marilyn called me the “Wizard” maybe because I was married to her sister Dorothy or maybe because she would ask me so many questions I had the answers to for her.

I called her Flossy and sometimes lifesaver because if you ever went shopping with her she would go into the supermarket for a few things and go around and around and around and come out 3 hours later .

We were the comedy duo for years, always telling jokes and laughing together . Flossy’s sister Dotti does not think I am funny at all .

I will miss her dearly . I loved her and I loved her a pineapple pie . I would like to send her off to heaven with our favorite joke

“ Today is my 70th Birthday without any joyous celebration. Maggie along with Manny will not be calling me today to sing the Happy Birthday song as they have done for so many years. Those of us who have had this call on our Birthdays know how funny and off key it was sung . It was great and bad at the same time and always made me laugh. I never thought I would miss it so much until today. Then for me there is “LUCY” the birthday card Maggie first sent to me in 1996 and we have exchanged that card every year since it was first sent . “LUCY” is filled with sisterly Love and Secrets. It has funny notes with important occasions noted . It has silly stuff glued on to it and we even had to add pages to the card as it had no more room for writing . It was my turn to receive the card and I have it in hand . If it was Maggie’s turn to receive it I would have sent “LUCY” off with her . When I opened the card I realized Maggie never had the chance to write a Birthday message to me. My heart dropped into a bottomless dark pit . It was crushed as I realized my baby sis, my Sunshine (my mom’s nick name for her) was gone forever. I have decided to write a message in my card today from Maggie. It will say ... “Sisters Forever “ One of the last text messages I received from her . Then on her Birthday in October I will write the same and add “LUCY” sends her love and misses you too.

“ You were our real life tinkerbelle with a truly magical heart. Always making people smile and laugh. She gave me the name "Niecy T" and I called her "Aunty M" but she was more like a best friend/sister to me. To my Boys Irwin, Dennis and Chris she was Great Aunt Marilyn, always happy, smiling, laughing she was down to earth and thier favorite Aunt! To my Grandchildren Riley, Gabriel, Alex, Ariely and Kerden she was Great Great Aunty Marilyn and they grew up knowing her and loving her. It was impossible not to be drawn to her, she made everyone smile. Our Aunty M is one beautiful woman that will not be forgotten for generation to come and that I know for sure. We all love you to the moon and back!

*I will always miss our shopping days and secret lunches where we would just talk. It was our little secret us time and I will miss it. Where we talked about future plans, regrets, secrets and her nieces and nephews. She used to tell that it was ok that she never had any children of her own because she was blessed to have so many beautiful nieces and nephews. I miss the multiple page text I would get several days a week and the almost daily meme's or just message saying "lv u". I told her I would always be there for her and whenever she needed me I was there. I made promises to her and I have kept those I was able to and the rest she knows about. I love you more
