“ Ted Law posted a symbolic gesture So sad and bummed out that Mark is gone. I have said a 100 prayers for him and Stephanie. We all loved him. How could you not. So funny, goofy, laughing, his accent, stories, good times and just a overall great guy. We had some great times and laughs with Mark. Redskins and Cowboy games, Thank Giving, birthdays and Christmas gatherings He sure did love the Redskins and Bucs. He was so in love with Stephanie and would do anything for her or the family. I asked my Mom and Dad who are in Heaven to go find him and give him a huge hug from us all. I know he is having a cocktail with Alice and all is well with him. I know he would want us all to take care of Mom/Stephanie and we will Mark I promise. I know Mark you are with Jesus our personal savior and you are young and super healthy and feeling great. We are all the ones left behind missing you and grieving at your sudden passing. Trust me it sucks!!! I know with time it will be easier to deal with and at some point we will all see you on the other side. We love you Mark. Safe travels brother Mark on your journey to heaven.

“ Kelly Zatopek uploaded photo(s) Let's be real. There was no one funnier than Uncle Mark. His laugh was infectious. His accent was one of legend. Anytime we saw Uncle Mark, our face and stomachs would hurt from laughter, and we would leave with yet another "You won't believe what Uncle Mark said" story. We will continue to repeat these stories and laugh. "Would ya'll like one of them Mo-ji-toooooos". Another member of our squad is gone, but we will party on. We will miss you Uncle Mark.

“ Melissa uploaded photo(s) I would like Mark's family to know that he loved you dearly. Chris and Bonnie and kids. He talked about you a lot. I spent a lot of time with Uncle Mark this past summer and for the past few years that he was in Virginia (where I also lived). Uncle Mark never missed an opportunity to tell me he loved me. We laughed a lot. As you know his laugh is contagious. He was a kind and loving person. We went out to eat a lot and he came to church with me quite a bit this past year. We talked about God and Jesus. I know Mark believed and he is with the Lord. I love you Uncle Mark. Thank you for your love, kindness, and generosity. We had so many good times. Love you! ~Missy
