“ Words cannot begin to express the heartfelt sorrow that we are feeling right now upon the passing of our beloved cousin, Mark Barton.

We have been blessed, with our recent journey to Florida, to spend some time with him and to make more memories that we shall cherish for the remainder of our lives.

We are so very sorry that we cannot attend his service, so we would like to use this medium to send our deepest and sincerest condolences to his entire family; including his children, grandchildren, parents, siblings and the numerous nieces and nephews.

Mark has left an impression on all of our hearts that we shall no sooner forget. He has been relieved of his suffering and now has been rejoined with all of our loved ones who have since passed. They all are enveloped in a light of warmth and love, never experienced in this world.

Rest in peace, Mark. We love you, we miss you and may the love of God fill your spirit for all of eternity.##imported-begin##Brian##imported-end##
