“Daddy, it's crazy to think that in just a few days it will be 5 years of you being gone...5 whole years...These past 5 years without you have been the absolute hardest years of my life.not only did I loose you but I lost myself... Everything turned dark... I did anything and everything I could to numb the pain..I didn't care about anything anymore and I ended up falling into an addiction imediantly after you left that I never in my life could have imagined I would have falling into... For years I was stuck in my addiction it did exactly what I wanted and made me not think about the reality of life and what was happening but at the same time it was the scariest most painful thing I had ever put myself through and i was hurting myself and my kids more than anything. It got to a point where I thought I would never be able to beat my addiction.. I would pray and beg please God save me please help my fight this battle I begged for 4 years and finally God answered my prayers when I was at the end of my rope. You told God to save me, that you weren't ready for me to be up there with you. You said I can't leave my babies and my mom and brother needed me. And he did just like you asked and he saved me from my own living hell I created.. 4 years later and I will now be 8 months clean July 31st . I have turned my life around completely. You have 3 grandsons now daddy. Thomas who is now 6 Anthony who is 2 and Taylor who is 3 months old. They are the smartest most beautiful and loving boys I could have ever dreamed of. Now I live my life for them. You would be so proud to see the mother I've become.... I love you so much daddy. Thankyou for saving me thankyou for watching over me and protecting me..

“ I would like to thank everyone for all the love and support you have given to us at this very difficult time. Mark would have been so happy to know how many of his friends, colleagues and family were there to support us. Mark was a kind, loving and genuine person with a good soul. He was laid to rest last night in the place he loved the most on this earth.., the beautiful ocean. He is at peace. Again, I cant be grateful nor any words could express how appreciative I am of all your love and support. My beautiful husband will shine through our son Chandler. He will always know how great his daddy was through Isabella and Austin LaPiere who meant the world to him. He would do anything for his family. A true father, gentleman and genuine soul.,

“ I've known Mark for 33 years. There were good times, bad times and everything in between. He was kind, loving and generous to everyone he knew. He loved just living life. To our children Isabella and Austin and to Clarissa and Chandler, he loved you all very much. We'll all see him again one day. He's now resting his weary head at God's feet.

“ Mark, I know it's been many many years since I saw you, but like I said to your sister, I will always remember "Debbie's Baby Brother", and how all her friends would race to be the first one to pick you up and carry you around at the house and church before your family moved to Florida. You were adorable then, and I knew you grow into a beautiful man! You will be missed by many, and my only regret is that I never got the opportunity to see you and meet your lovely family. May the entire LaPiere Family find peace & love during this difficult time. My heart, prayers, love & sincere sympathy...Judy (Currey) & Frank Pearson.
