“ *Bill Trudell posted a condolence It's hard to believe that Mark has been gone two years as of today. I miss his quick wit, his good humor, his hearty laugh, and his musical harmonies. But most of all, I miss my friend.
Deb and Loretta, thinking of you today as well.
Bill*

“ Toni Walker - Family Friend posted a condolence I know I am late with this but my heart has been too sad to know what to say. Mark was my Step-Son. He was always pleasant and welcoming to me. The only comfort I can find is that he has been reunited with his Dad and Grandparents. My heart is broken for Loretta and Debbie. R.I.H. Gone too soon but never forgotten. Hug Sandy for me.

“ Christine Graham - Co-Worker posted a condolence Although I did not know Mark very well, we always seemed to park our vehicles in next to each other each morning at the hospital. He was always so kind, holding the parking garage elevator for me, even when I was moving much more slowly than he was. My prayers go out to his family and all those who loved him.

“ Tero - One of many people Mark made smile every day posted a condolence I am one of many people that Mark came in contact with here at the hospital. Any time Mark delivered the mail, he always had a smile on his face and happy greetings when he walked in the door. Always willing to help and when he left, always said "have a nice morning". We will miss him.

“ Erin Sullivan - friend posted a condolence So hard to believe Mark got his wings this young but the good ones always do leave us way too soon. My heart breaks for you, Debbie and Loretta. Hopefully, this poem will bring you some peace. Smile Because He Lived You can Shed tears that he is gone, or you can smile because he lived. You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see him, or you can be full of the love that you shared. You can turn your back on tomorrow and live for yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember him and only that he is gone, or you can cherish his memory and let it live on. You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn back, or you can do what he would want: Smile, open your eyes, love and go on. Debbie and Loretta make Mark proud and live this gift of life we are given to the fullest, he would want you too.

“ Jimari - friend posted a condolence Dearest Deb, Loretta and family We are so very sorry that Mark has passed over. He will always be by your side watching over you. It is heartbreaking for all of you and we want you to know that we, the boys and I, are here for anything that you may need. I pray that you and the family finds the peace that only our Lord, Jesus Christ can bring. Take comfort in knowing full well that Mark is with him. We love you girls, Jimari, Isaac and Elijah

“ Chris Walker - Brother posted a condolence Christmas Eve, 1978, probably was one of the happiest moments for me. It was always very festive due to my older brother Mark being the "MC" of the evening with his wacky comedic impressions and us fooling around in our imaginary rock band, known as "Rampage". Here, in the photo, you can see my brother encouraging me to sing "New York Grove" by KISS guitarist Ace Frehely. Happier times. Good times. I look forward to seeing him again on that great rock & roll stage in the sky. See you around, Rocky J.
