*Ted and Brad, I am so sorry to learn about Marsha's death, especially since it is months ago now (I was looking for Marsha on google and this was how I discovered her death, 10/8/19). My mom was her cousin, Sandra (Wylie) Mcghee so I sent the obituary to my Mom's sister, Gayle (Wylie) Gilbreath, and the other cousins: Barbara Ann (Wylie) Williams, her brother, John Harvey Wylie and Linda Sue (Wylie) Wishousky. I am sorry we didn't see you and Ted much after you returned to Texas from Florida. I emailed some, but never received a reply. I feel terrible, and just had no idea she was ill. God be with you both as you heal from her loss.
Bless your family- Scherri (McGhee) McGinn*

“ May I extend my heartfelt sympathy to family and friends at this most challenging time and I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible says at Ecclesiastes Chapter 9:5,10 that those who pass away are at peace and are not suffering, and Job Chapter 14:14,15 states that God wants our loved ones to live again in health and happiness. I hope these scriptures bring some comfort to you.

“ My sympathy and condolences to Ted and his family on Marsha's passing. Everyone lost a wonderful, gracious woman who always gave so much to family and others. I personally observed Marsha and Ted's great love in their travels and companionship. Also, in caring for each other over the years. They were best friends and shared wonderful memories. Ted always provided Marsha with the most loving and compassionate care a person could hope for, and especially the past few years after her injury.

Marsha was a lovely lady and our prayers to Ted and family in this time of great sorrow.
