“ Darlene Molina - Friend posted a condolence Our thoughts and prayers are for You and Your Family! Frances will be deeply missed but I know now deep in my heart that she is with her Husband and she is finally at rest. I will always remember her as a kind hearted very compassionate woman. I use to always call her Granny Bateman and she would just laugh. Even though we were years apart we were very close. She will always be in our hearts. We are sorry for your loss. Love her dearly Darlene, Michelle, Terry and William.

“ Dyan Watson - niece posted a condolence My Faffie... I can not begin to express how much I loved her. She was my second mom all my life. The memories are so many where do I begin. As a child the many trips downtown on the bus to see Uncle Bill and do shopping. The many dinners at McDonalds with my dear aunt & uncle. Then as the years past the days I spent in the pool under the watchful eye of Faffie & Bill... then I went to college and lived with them officially... I will cherish every memory of my Faffie... there are volumes of loving thoughts of her & Uncle Bill. My heart hurts so, but she is WELL and with Jesus.
