“ I met Deedie (Mary) in the early 60s. Her sister Linda and me were friends and we would stop at her house on my way home. Their house was the place to be!! Her Mom was so Cool!! Deedie ended up meeting my brother and they fell in love and married. My mother welcomed her to the family and loved her like a daughter, we always teased them saying she liked Deedie better than us. But Deedie was like another sister to me and Dianna. Deedie and her family lived on one side of mother and Dianna and her family on the other. (I had moved away cause my husband was in Marines for 4 years) they were just one big happy family visiting each other off and on everyday. The bond was always close. Deedie was such a loving, kind, giving and strong woman. She was a wonderful mother and wife. She stood by my brother through good times and tough ones. I can picture them all together again. God has received another Angel, fly high Sweet Deedie ❤️✝️
