

Mary DiNapoli

September 28, 1924 - July 18, 2024

Her life of ninety-nine-plus years was touched by three families.

In chronological order: Mom was born into the Parisi family, as a young woman married into the Ferrilli family and then after a divorce eventually married into the DiNapoli family. She is survived by members of each family. Mom lived her life as an exceptionally strong woman - dedicated wife, mother and homemaker; additionally she supplemented family financial support by maintaining a career as a payroll analyst with the Mobil Oil Company. She brought up her four children in the Catholic religion and still could recite "The Our Father" prayer which she did the evening before joining Dad in heaven.
