“ Fran was my friend. I've known her close to 40 years and I am very glad that I got to see her in October. She knew she was dying but was cheerful and friendly as ever. Fran accomplished more than most, and her loss of hearing was never a handicap to her. The best part was that she didn't have to listen to Bill when she didn't want to read his lips! Fran was a long time friend of the whole Roberts family and we will miss her deeply, but we will never forget her###imported-begin##Jim Gruenebaum###imported-end##

“ Dearest Friend, our friendship was short, but I want ever forget you and your sweet spirit, whenever I would see you walking your pets, we would cross over and hug. I want ever forget the day in your backyard as you gathered plants and clippings for me to take home, I will miss you, but friend you have a new body now and no sickness shall touch you, we will meet again some day, I look forward to that day, I pray your pets will learn to be happy again, cause they now miss their momme. May God strengthen Bill, and give him the peace and comfort that he needs now as he goes through this trying time of reconciling his mate is gone. God create things for Bill to do, and make those walks that he did so long ago to be a help to him as he will adjust, In Jesus Name

Sending a Big Hug

“ Dear Bill,
We were so sad to hear of Fran's passing on Tuesday. It has been a very long road for both of you. What a blessing that Fran had you to love her and care for her these past few months. She was a great friend and neighbor to us for over 21 years. We will be constantly reminded of her "green thumb" every time we look over in your yard. We know she is happier now and in a better place.
We know she is happier now and in a better place.
May God bless you and fill you with His peace.
With Love,

“ although we knew of marys sad diagnosis, somehow, after knowing this amazing woman for 20 years, i hoped, i prayed, she would beat this like she has done so many times in her life...i met mary at work and liked her right away.....she was kind, caring, a hard worker and funny.....i admired herhaving a disability,which you never knew about until she'd laugh and say i can't hear was just inspiring to all who knew her.....when she retired i think about 7 or 8 years ago.....i never got over her being gone and everytime we'd email each other.....i'd say.....mary, i still miss you ! she will always be one of the best memories i have of my years in the post office.....so long my friend.....when we meet again, we'll have a lot time to spend together and laugh about ole times.....till then stay close to bill.....he needs YOU now to be beside him thru his tomorrows till the sadness and pain eases and the memories make him smile instead of cry.....luv ya girlfriend !!!! always have.....always will.....your faerie friend n her cowboy :D##imported-begin##peggy n lenny##imported-end##

“ I am another of Fran's Dave's Garden buddies. We "met" last May and had planned to exchange plants in July when I went to FI on vacation. Unfortunately, Fran got sick just a short time before my trip, so I wasn't able to meet her in person. But, she was such a warm and caring person, and loved her plants so much that even though she was in the hospital, she wanted me to come by and pick up plants. I felt it was best that she focus on getting well, instead of worrying about my picking up plants that she had rooted for me. I had planned for us to swap plants this Spring instead. Fran has been on my prayer list for many months, and I still pray for her husband daily because I know how hard this must be for him.

Bill, may God grant you the strength and peace that only He can provide. Fran, we miss you, but are thankful that you are no longer in pain. I am sure the gardens in heaven welcome your loving touch.##imported-begin##Genna Hargis##imported-end##

“ *Dear Uncle Bill,
I know that you are hurting and miss Aunt Fran as much as we do so I want you to know that I will keep you in my prayers. God is the only one who can truly heal a broken heart and I find comfort knowing that Aunt Fran is walking with Jesus in Heaven helping him plant a beautiful garden for us to see one day. She is smiling and happy and hurting no more! Please find comfort in the Lord and tell him all your troubles and he will make them all better as only he can do. With love, Mary###imported-begin##Mary Robinson###imported-end##*
