Opening her home to Tom for weeks so he could be close to me while in grave condition in Palms of Pasadena. Supporting us this year in the passing of our youngest daughter and again when Tom passed in April. Emails back & forth. Jokes flying. I will never forget her love and hugs. “ Victor Sciortino and Leona Yiannitsis - Cousin/Nephew posted a condolence Leona (my fiancée) met Mary a few years ago along with Aunt Loretta and was impressed with how nice she was. I thank God that she was able to meet her and see what a loving person she was. I still remember when my brothers and I were kids and lived with Grandma (Cecile Angel) and Aunt Mary and her kids. Mary was always so nice and friendly. My mother (Anna Sciortino) was so close to her. They were closer than sisters. She was a source of strength for my mother, someone she could talk to even after my grandma had passed. Everyone in our family will dearly miss her. May God take her beautiful soul into his loving arms.
