“ DeDe's grandparents lived across the street from us. She babysat for my brothers and me. We shared many laughs over the years about those times. She was a real Southern lady and will be missed by many in Sanford.

“ Dede was a true Southern Lady. She was so proud of her children/grand children and had great love for her family, community and heritage. She was a wise woman in so many ways. I'm sure she's teaching classes in the great beyond. She will be missed by many. With love and condolences to her family. John & Donna Lake
