My dear Beautiful Mother, you have shown me such great Love and Faith!! I have become so much stronger to have known you after lifes weird ways of separating us. Once coming to know you again and reuniting with my sister Kelly, you showed me it is ok to make mistakes and to live life. You held me when I needed it and allowed me to hold you when you needed it. I thank God for our time and look forward to being with you again in Heaven

Kevin Chudzik - February 23, 2015 at 01:12 PM

from one dear friend to another I will always remember all the good times we had from the time I was fourteen and you being down at the pines reading a book and tanning till the last few days of your life I will hold each and everyone in my heart you will live with us till we take that journey and meet again love ya always rita

I am so glad that I met you Maureen. It was just a few weeks ago and even though you were very ill, I saw a flicker of your sense of humor while we spoke. That's how I will remember you, pretty lady, and so glad we had that moment in time. May you rest in peace.

Isabel Dennis - February 24, 2015 at 01:42 PM

I never knew you except thru your sweet daughter Kelly, I'm sure you were so much like her because of all the things posted here. May you be walking those streets of gold and enjoying yourself right now.
