“ Fran (Richardson) Gammage - God Sister posted a condolence I thought I heard your voice yesterday. Then I turned around to say that "I loved you". Then I realized, and it was just my mind playing tricks on me. Everytime the phone rings, God...how I wished it was you. I just can't believe, I will no longer hear from you. I MISS YOU! There's no other way to say it and I, and I can't deny it. Memories of the feelings that we used to share, showing how much you cared. Storms are the worse kind of weather, but I've got to gather my senses together. It's over now, I know you would want me to be strong. I can't believe that you're gone. I've got to carry on. As a sister thanks for being a part of me. I miss you, I miss you & me.

“ donna gale - friend posted a condolence Dear Melanie, I cant get over your passing you are in my thoughts each day, you and Jim are now reunited. We had fun days when you were in England, The Ritz London, shopping in Harrods, afternoon teas, antique shops, train and London bus rides and just being together. Our telephone conversations that went on for hours. The parcels they we use to send each other. I have so many fond memories of you and Jim that will stay in my heart forever. Love Donna, Kenny , Vicki, Chris, Katie, Grace and Charlie. Rest In peace Melanie and Jim xx
