“ The days since Mom has gone - had Mom's Memorial on 4/26th to celebrate her LIFE. It was a great day, full of love. Mom's 83rd birthday on 4/30th - miss her so much. Then we've had Mother's Day without Mom, Mom and Dad's 65th Wedding Anniversary 6/18th. Dad will forever grieve for her - I can't imagine what losing part of you feels like. I know Mom is at peace and free, that's what helps me pass each day with a smile and love in my heart.

“ Its been 15 days since Mom passed. It just doesn't seem real. I miss her so much. Not a moment goes by that she isn't in my thoughts. I must say I am so thankful and honored to have cared for her these past 18 months. I fortunately have said everything to her I needed to say. She knows how much I love her, she knows how wonderful a person I think she is. How I hope I can be half as great a mom, wife, friend, sister as she is.

“ Melba Glyn Tucker Kendrick was a loving and dutiful daughter, sister, wife, mother and 'Mema', Mother passed away peacefully surrounded by loved ones. My only regrets are for the things that were left unsaid and for the missed opportunities.

“ Such a Beautiful, Kind, Loving, Thoughtful Woman! This world is a better place for the people who have had the privilege to know her! Mrs. Kendrick is an inspiration of southern charm, wisdom, beauty, creativity, style, strength, hard work, love, friendship, laughter and Genuine Grace. An Angel here on earth is now in Heaven, happy and free with those who went before her and waiting with open arms to welcome those come after...Thank you to Mr. Kendrick, their sons and especially their only daughter, Diane, whom I am fortunate enough to call my friend, for sharing her with me. Love, Cheryl Mertan

“ There is so much I miss about my grandma to much to list, but the one thing I miss the most is her hugs. She was an amazing grandma, put others before her self and showed love in all she did. I love you Mema

“ I will miss my Mom every day. I will miss her wisdom, unconditional love, her smile. I will miss her hugs, her words of encouragement and understanding. She will always be with me - in my heart. I will see her again one day. - but for today and the rest of my life she will be missed greatly. She is free now, ageless, beautiful perfect soul. Heaven definitely has received the most beautiful angel. I am honored and proud to call her Mom. I was blessed to be able to have her as long as I have. She's the epitome of love.

“ I remember when I was little, my Mema always had a scotch and water in her hand and I would always say, "Mema can I have a sip" and she would say "yes, but only a sip". Every time I came over, she always knew that I was going to ask for a sip. I'm going to miss seeing her sitting in that green chair next to Pepa, I'm going to miss her saying "I love you sweetheart" whenever I would walk past her to get to my room and most of all, I'm going to miss her smile that lightened up the whole room. She's a saint. I love you Mema and I miss you so much.

ME

Melba has been in my life since I was a young girl of thirteen, so I think of her as my sister, not my sister-in-law. We have had so many wonderful years together and she was the ultimate welcoming hostess, always full of life and love. She very generously shared many books from her extensive reading library and I especially enjoyed the Nancy Drew and Judy Bolton Mysteries that she introduced to me during my early adolescence. She will be missed by all of us and I look forward to being with her again.
