“ Jim,
May our Lord Jesus comfort you and your family during the passing of your father into the kingdom of God. I know words are awkward now, I'm praying for you and Kathleen. Knowing you, I'm sure both your childhood and adult years were filled with good memories of wisdom, insights, and love that you will find strength and spiritual refreshment in...I continue to reflect on memories of my father for insights and comfort. May God continue to bless you and your family in the days and weeks ahead in comfort of a loved father and friend now with his Creator.

Donna have been on vacation and are now in Jax visiting our daughter's family. With my condolences,
Earl and Donna###imported-begin##Earl & Donna Hunt###imported-end##

“ Jim,
Love the picture of your dad. He has that twinkle in his eyes that we remember when we met him at yours and Kathleen's wedding. A loving and good man who will be missed dearly. Wish we could all give you a big hug. We keep offering up prayers throughout the day that the Lord provides you with the comfort, peace, and love you need in this time of such deep loss.##imported-begin##Susan##imported-end##
