“ To the Damiano Family

I just learned on your husband and father passing away. Mike was my best friend fom 2nd grade thru 8th. I moved to NJ and later CA and TX. I was best man at Mike's first wedding.

I would love to hear from you

“ Our first neighbors in Casa Aloma. As I got older, he kept telling me to call him by his first name. I just couldn't do it - still can't - he'll always be Mr. Damiano to me. I figure that when it's my time, somewhere beyond the pearly gates I'll hear a voice beckoning "It's only Erin!" God Bless You and your wonderful family, who I had the pleasure of knowing for many years. I hope you have reconnected with my Mom and Dad. I can just hear you all now!

“ Michael was truly a gentleman and a wonderful husband to my sister Tricia. We are all blessed for having known him, loved him and received his love in return. We have much comfort in knowing that Michael was a true man of God and that he has joined his father in heaven. Rest in peace Michael. We love you, miss you and we Will see you again! I know that you are smiling right now as you look down upon us.
God Bless
Your BIL

“ I wanted to remember Michael and let you know what an amazing soul he was to me. Always a smile and an uplifting word. Never an unkind word about others. I worked with Michael @ Wyndham and he became a father figure to me. Very protective when other men were not and always had my best interest at hand. A true Man of God and always spoke of how much he loved Patricia and what a wonderful person and wife she was to him. Always kind, always a gentleman, he will be missed.

“ Dear Tricia, Chris and Amy,
We were so sorry to hear of Mike's death. We have such fond memories of all the good times that we had together. He has been such a good friend for over 40 years. We still joke about our Monday night football games where we invariably ended up throwing a football out in the street at 11:00 pm. He will be missed but we know that we'll meet again. He is surely enjoying the joy of being with God. Our love, thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ Dear Tricia, Chris, Amy...We extend our heartfelt sympathy to all of you at this time. We have known Mike and your family for over 40 years. I worked with Mike in our industry and had many of laughs during our taking educational classes together. He was always smiling and had a good word to say about everything. Our twins went to school with Chris & Amy. He will be missed by every one who has ever met him. We send our love & prayers to you for your loss.
