“ Jodi DeFelice Harris - Unknown posted a condolence To the family of Michael DeFelice... I came across the name of your loved one because I was searching the great-grandfather of my son Vincent DeFelice. My son lost his father William DeFelice last year, very unexpectedly. William's father was Thomas W DeFelice (b1947), who passed away of cancer back in 1997. I believe Thomas was the brother of Michael... as he and I were close before he passed, and he mentioned a brother he was not in contact with. It is difficult to confirm these details however, as there is no other family. Please realize I do not wish to intrude in any way on your grief, nor does my son. We are still feeling our own grief for William. We are only looking to connect to Tom's, and therefore my son's, family history - we do not expect any contact beyond perhaps an email, if you are willing. Any information about Tom's and Michael's parents (names, dates of birth or death) you would be willing to confirm or deny would be appreciated. Feel free to email me at Thank you for your time, and please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Lisa and Tim - neighbor posted a condolence Your warm and friendly smile was the very first thing we saw when we pulled up with our U-Haul from out of state. We did not know anyone at all and you introduced yourself right away and gave us the warmest welcome anyone could ever receive. You invited us over and made us feel so comfortable in our new environment and offered your help with anything we needed. We are so glad that we had the honor of knowing you even though it was only for a short time. You will be greatly missed.
