“ My husband and I met Mikey through a mutual friend a few years ago and I'm so glad we got to know him. We have had some crazy fun times together and the memories will last a lifetime. Mikey was so fun to be around and he always wanted to see you smile, no matter what. He was the funniest guy in the room, always cracking jokes. He was also such a sweet and loving soul and just a good person all around. There's no doubt by how he talked, that he loved his family and friends a lot.

My prayers of comfort and peace go out to his mom, sons and to everyone else that had been touched by knowing Michael.

You will be deeply missed Mikey

Those kind of zingers will be missed by all and many more that aren't appropriate in this forum. We're gonna miss him.

January, 16, 1967...hours before i was to leave for the Army, I went to see this new baby, my first nephew...who grew to be a good man, always came with a smile & laughter...I always think of Michael, and Robert, and their dad, my brother, everyday..I like to believe, they're all with a higher authority now, they may have been a bit rough around the edges at times, but great people, & Michael, was a smart man, & did things, and went places, most people dream of...my sincerest condolences, to Diane, his family, and friends, who were fortunate enough to have known Micheal, & especially his close friend, Dawn, who he spoke to one way or another, just about every night...may he rest, in eternal peace.....sincerely, uncle Rob
