

Michael Joseph Hurtack

September 3, 2021

Michael J Hurtack 72 of Largo passed away September 3, 2021. He was born in Cleveland, Ohio and came here many years ago.

Michael was a free spirit, humanitarian, philosopher, artist, and beach walker. His friends at the beach called him Moses. Michael was generous, kindhearted, charismatic, and loved to go to church at St. Jerome's then for coffee and donuts and alpha group.

Michael enjoyed Knights of Columbus, Rotary and particularly valued participating in many Rotary humanitarian trips throughout the world. Michael touched the lives of countless peoples throughout the world and he is of Oneness with it.

He is survived by his fiancé , Luz Infante and a daughter, Rhonda Barfield.

Celebration of Life will be held Oct 2, 2021 at 5:30pm on the beach located at Indian Rocks Beach on 3rd Avenue.

In lieu of flowers, the family would prefer plants.

“ *jmmgm2@aol.com posted a condolence Michael was not only an artist and a beach icon, but he was a friend of mine. Soon after Marsha and I came to Indian Shores Beach I began walking 2-3 mornings a week with Michael. He was a deep thinker, a philosopher of sorts and more importantly a confessed believer in Jesus Christ. I am convinced, just as I know you are Luz, that Michael, right now, is walking beaches more beautiful than any of us can even imagine. It is obvious to all who have walked the beaches, that there is now something larger than life, that missing from our small piece of the Gulf coast; Michael.
With heart felt condolences to Luz and Rhonda,
Joe and Marsha Mascherin*

“ jaya uploaded photo(s) My deepest sympathies to the family. It was memorable since day 1 when we met Michael for the Turkey tour. He added happiness and was a great travel companion. We miss his daily morning pictures by the sea. I pray he is safe with his Creator and angels. Jaya
